

Help George Washington find his way to Rose Hill

President Washington was a friend of Governor Thomas Johnson who lived at Rose Hill with his daughter from about 1793 -1819. It is not known whether Washington ever visited his friend at this home.